

Your Journey Begins Here

Why ADP? Concordia-Chicago recognizes that each person has a unique educational journey. The Accelerated Degree Program (ADP) allows students who have previously discontinued their education to pick up where they left off and complete a degree. By meeting the needs of our students and offering flexible delivery—online, on campus or hybrid—the ADP program provides students with the opportunity to become successful in their educational and professional careers.

2016-17 enrollment. The Concordia-Chicago Accelerated Degree Program (ADP) reports excellent enrollment trends for the current academic year. The Fall 2016 intake of 78 new students surpassed the program's recruitment goal. Between Fall 2015 and Fall 2016, the program admitted 171 new students. The Spring 2017 term was also an enrollment success for the program, showing 16% growth compared to the same period one year earlier. ADP boasts a high retention rate—90% of the Fall 2016 starts continued their education into the spring term.

ADP history. Concordia-Chicago's Accelerated Degree Program launched the first bachelor's degree in organizational management in 1990. It has grown in the years since to encompass five programs, a certificate program, a 3+1 partnership with the College of DuPage and three dual degrees. ADP is proud to have graduated 1,039 students—and counting.
