

Antiphon:

Psalm Tone:

PSALM 85

Be kind to your land, O Lord;
Bring to and end Jacob's exile.
Remove the guilt of your people;
Forgive them all their sins. Antiphon.

Stop being angry with us,
Turn away from your fiery wrath.
Restore us, our saving God,
And cease to rage against us. Antiphon

Will you fume at us forever,
Staying angry, age after age?
If only you would restore us to life,
And let you people rejoice in you. Antiphon

Show us your constant love, O Lord,
And offer us your salvation.
Let me hear what God declares,
For the Lord is declaring peace: Antiphon

"I will tell the people devoted to me,
Do not be complacent again!
For those who fear salvation is near;
My glory will dwell in your land." Antiphon

Devotion and faith join together;
Peace and justice exchange a kiss.
Fidelity sprouts from the earth,
And justice looks down from the sky. Antiphon

Surely the Lord will send rain,
And our land will produce the harvest.
Justice will come from God's presence,
And beauty will follow justice. Antiphon
