

Christmas Wonder

Unison w/ flute or other C inst. and handbells

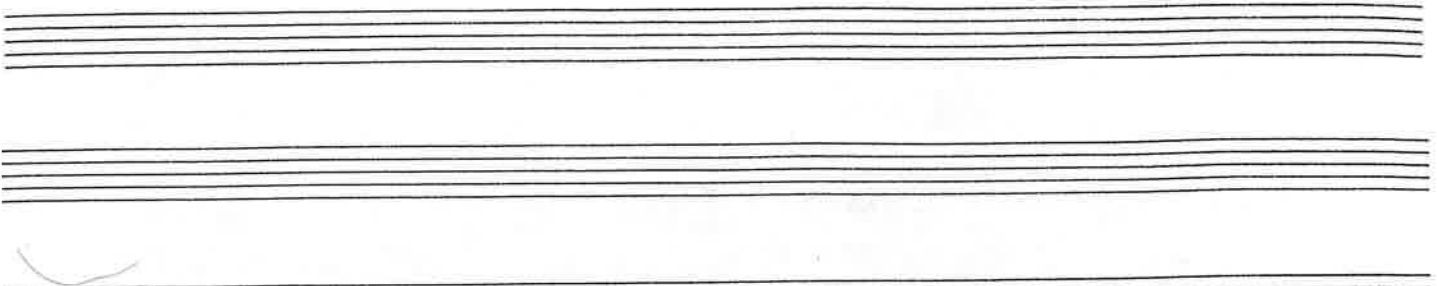

Text

Del B. Anderson

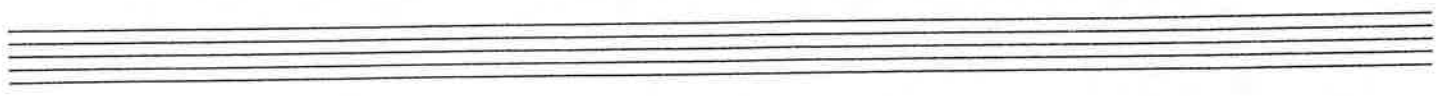

Music

Walter L. Pelz

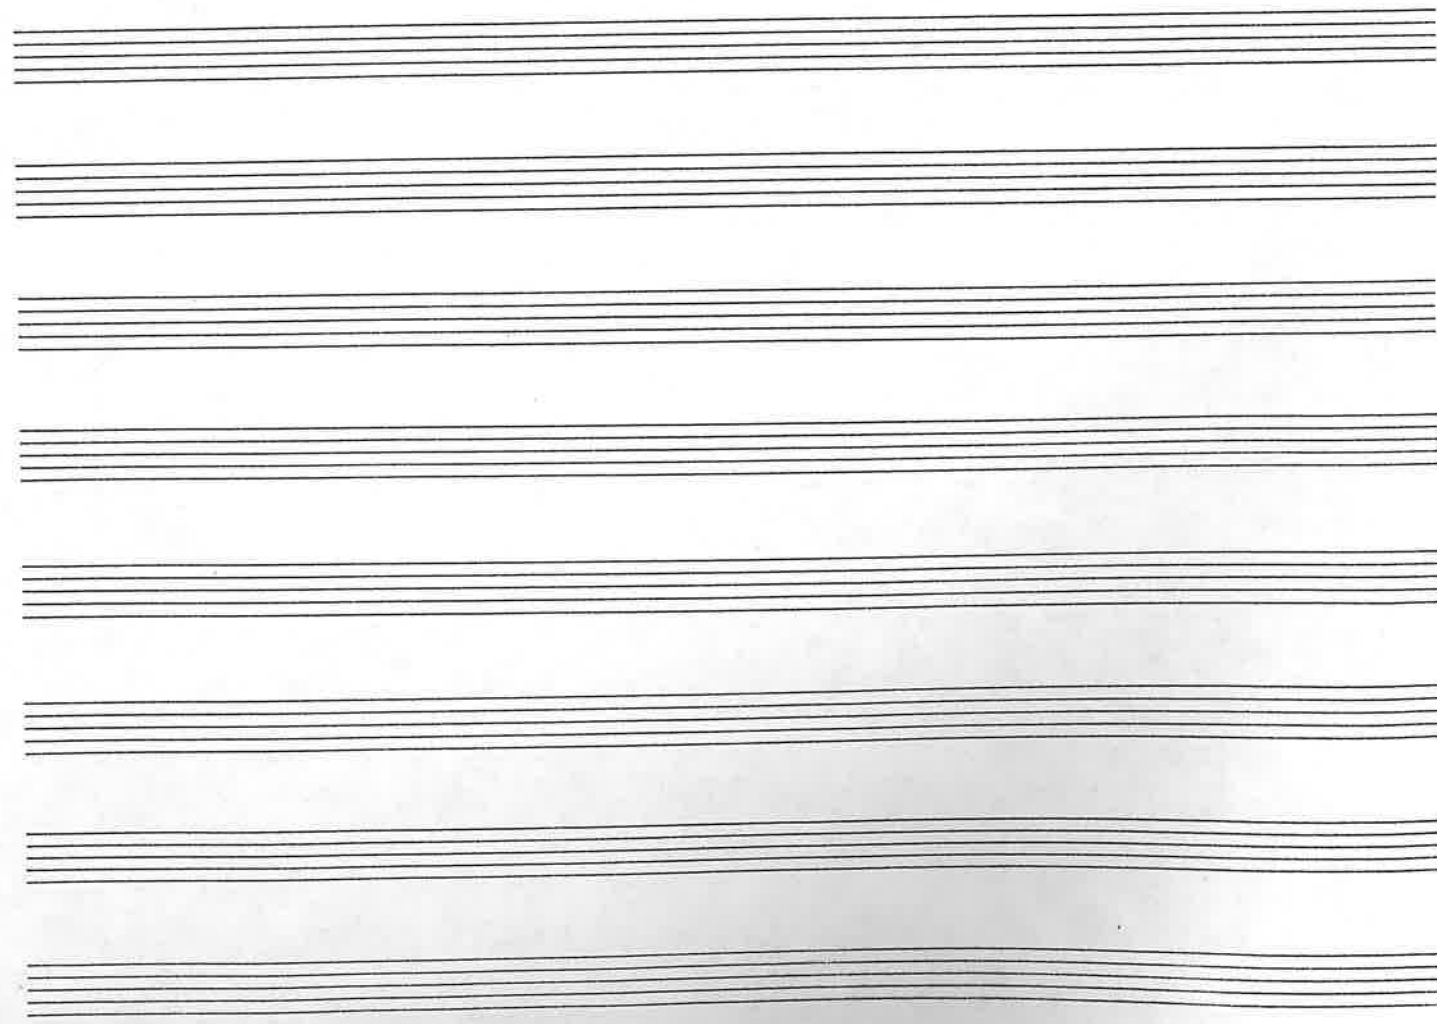

Bells used:

* or other instrument
 Preferably organ

Christmas Wonder

Del B. Anderson

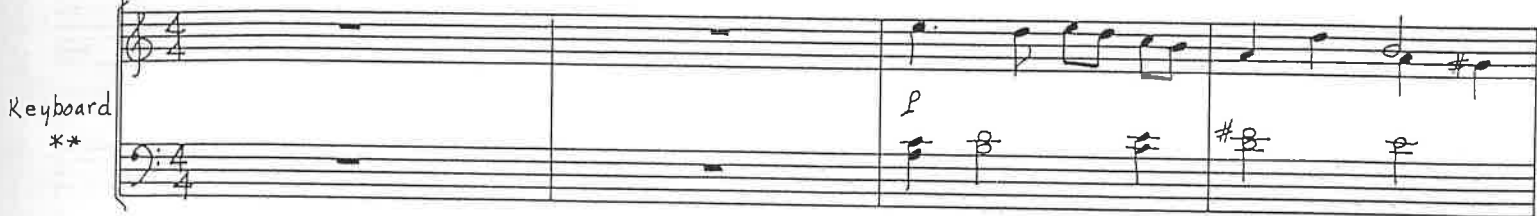

Walter L. Pelz

With gentle motion ($\text{♩} = \text{c. } 60$)

Flute *

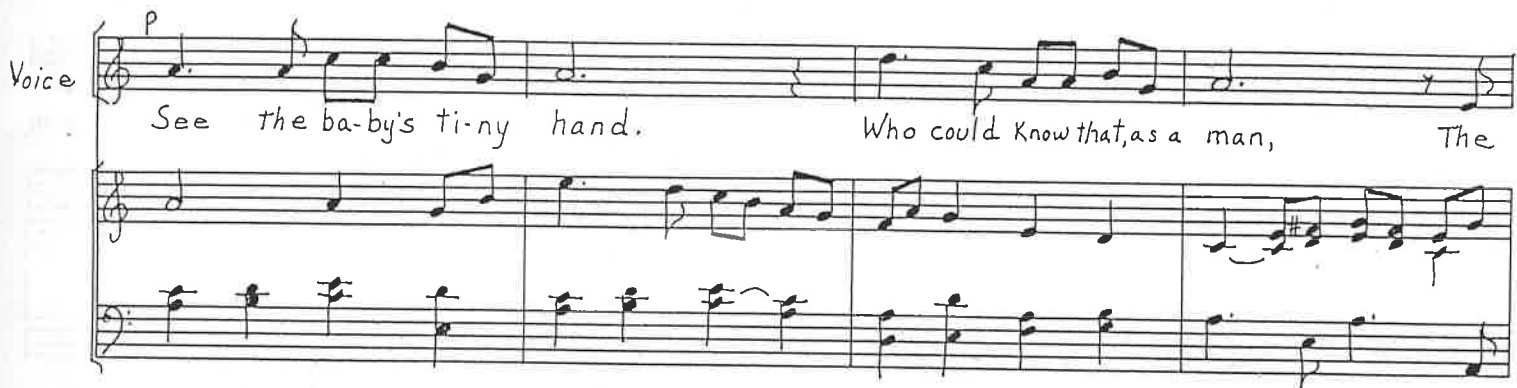

Keyboard **

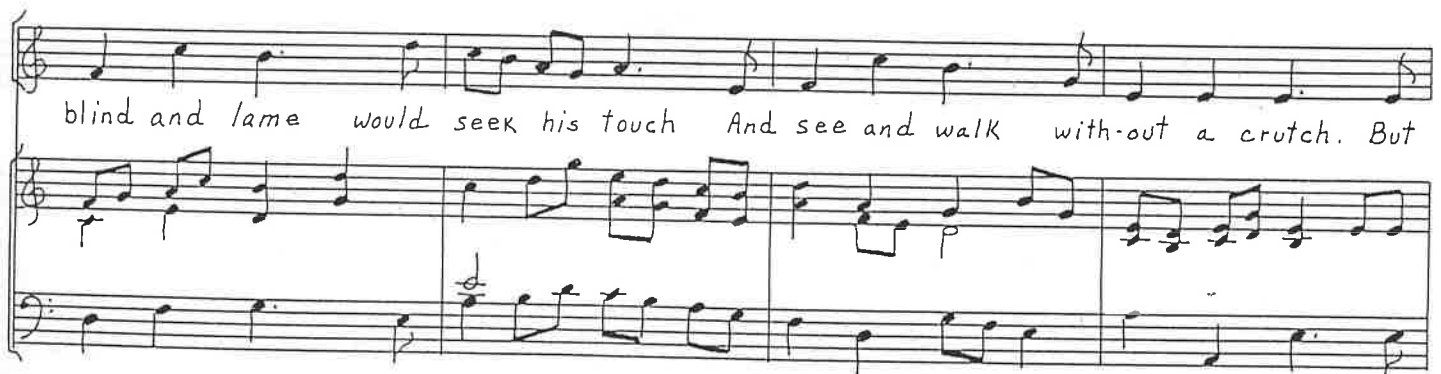

Voice

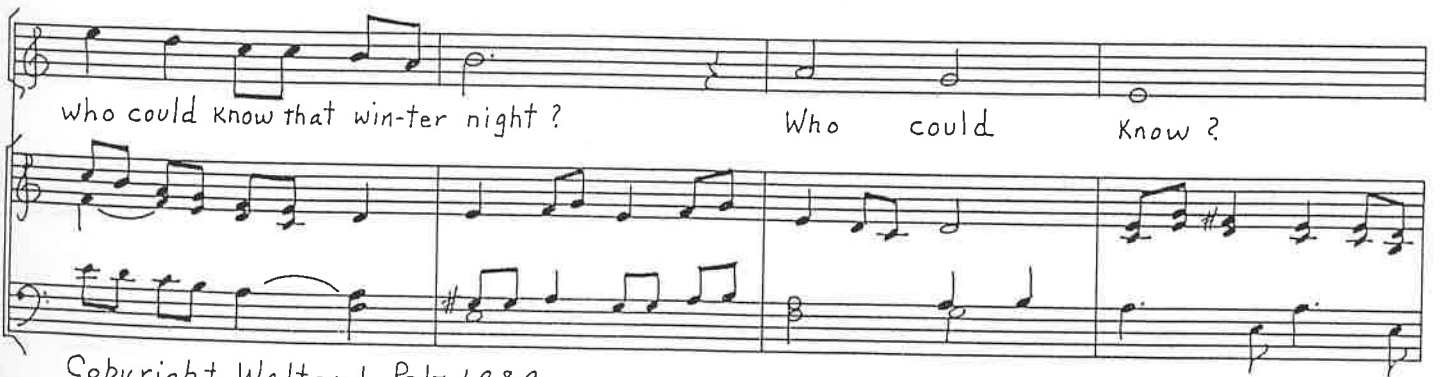

See the ba-by's ti-ny hand. Who could know that, as a man, The blind and lame would seek his touch And see and walk with-out a crutch. But who could know that win-ter night? Who could know?

Copyright Walter L. Pelz 1989

Fl. mp

V. p

Key

Hold the ba-by's lit-tle foot.

Who would know that he would put his foot-print on the sands of time with dus-ty trek through Pal-e-stine. But who could know that win-ter night?

Flute

Handbells

Voice

Who could know?

Keyboard

mf

H.B.

V.

Hear the ba-by's fit-ful cry. Who could know that he would die And

Key.

mf

then re-tun to set us free From death's un-end - ing mis - er - y. But

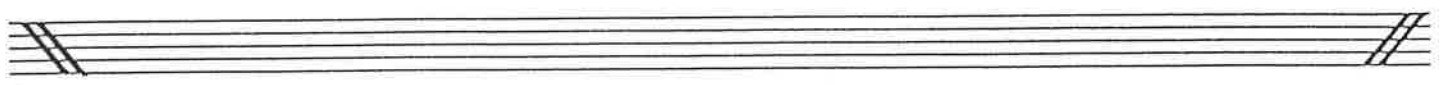

Fl.

H.B.

V.

Who could know that win-ter night ? Who could know ?

Key.

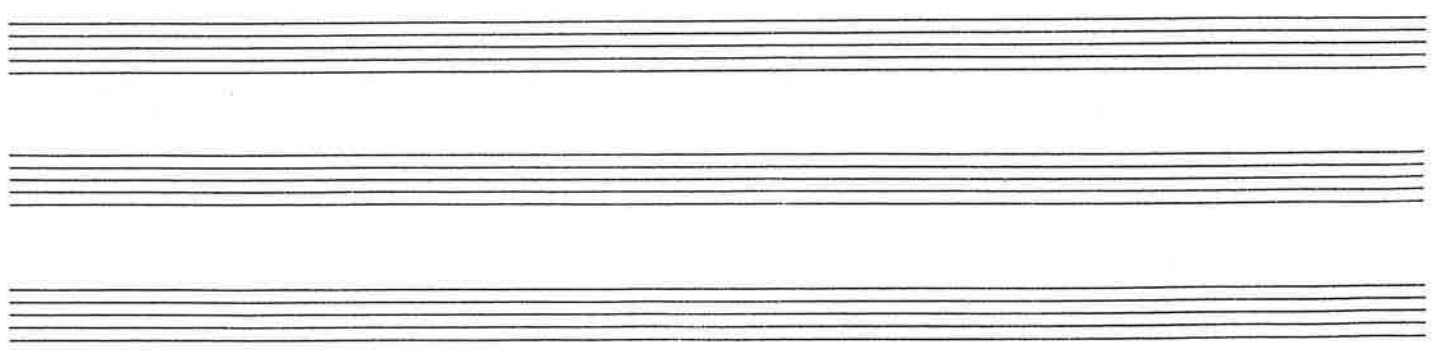

mf

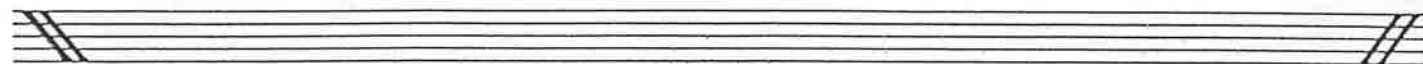

mf

mf

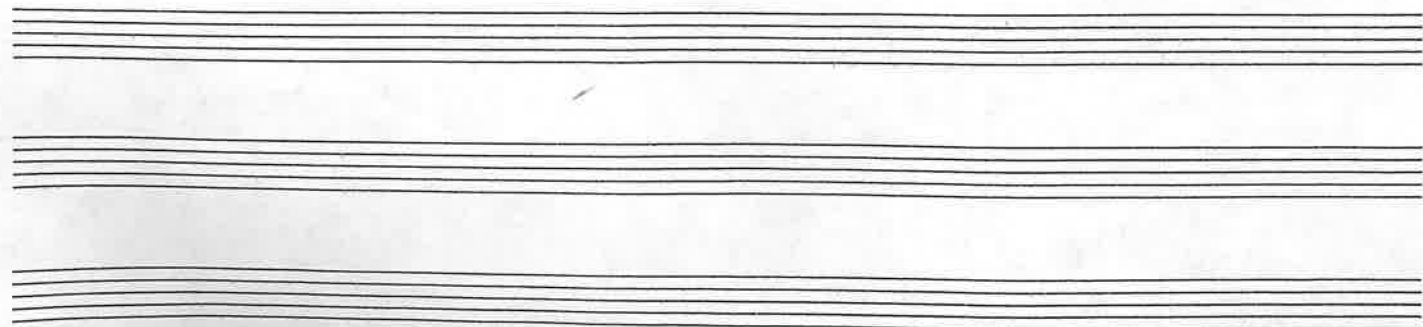

See the ba-by's eyes so bright. Who could know that win-ter night That He would look in-to my soul And, lov-ing me, would make me whole. My life was changed that an-cient night. Now I rit. + dim.

pp rit. + dim.

pp rit. + dim.

pp

Know.

rit. + dim.

pp

edg